Brown, of Kansas City, Mo., editor of the Word and Way, has been selected for assembly pastor. Dr. T. P. Stafford, Dean of the Kansas City Theological Seminary is to lecture on Bible. Jessie Burrell, recently from Washington D. C. who was teacher of the largest Sunday school class in the world has been employed to lecture and teach. She is a miracle. Dr. B. A. Pugh, of Muskogee, Okla., will teach and lecture. E. E. Lee, a B. Y. P. U. specialist who is employed by The Home Board of the Southern Baptist, will be one of the Big attractions.

There is only one Lee, do not fail to hear him. There will be many other speakers of note that will appear on the program that the people of this community know, such as O. L. Wood, of Kansas City, P. T. Harmon, of Bolivar; J. L. Leonard, of Springfield; Miss Fern Gates of Springfield and others.

NEWS LETTER LAWRENCE COUNTY FARM BUREAU

L. L. Hunt, County Agent.
Meeting at Experiment Field.

A big farmers meeting and picnic will be held at the Experiment field, one mile east of Newtonia, on August 27, for the farmers of Lawrence and adjoining counties. This meeting will be held at the Missouri Agricultural Experiment Station, and specialists will be there to explain the work being done in silos and field crops.

The big event of the day will be an address by Dean Mumford of the Missouri Experiment Station. W. C. Ethridge, and C. E. Carter will talk on the rotation of corn, soy beans, wheat and clover, and results obtained from treatment with manure, fertilizer, lime and straw. P. F. Schwengerdt and O. B. Price will speak on field crops, especially corn, sorghum, soy beans, cow peas, alfalfa and clover. This will be an excellent opportunity for the farmers in Lawrence county to get the latest experimental results and results obtained on soils that are similar to our soils here.

Meetings will be held in other communities the following week.

Limestone Pulverizers Will Compete.

Arrangements are being made to have a number of companies send limestone crushers and pulverizers to the county for a competitive limestone pulverizing demonstration. Machines entered in the meet will be of the smaller sizes suitable for individual, community, or township use. This will be an excellent opportunity for the men interested in limestone to see the machines at work, compare the different makes, and find out the grinding cost per ton. Professor Schoengerdt the limestone expert from the State Experiment Station will be present to give a short talk on the value of limestone and what other counties are doing with the local pulverizers. The date is Saturday September 3rd. Full program will be announced next week.

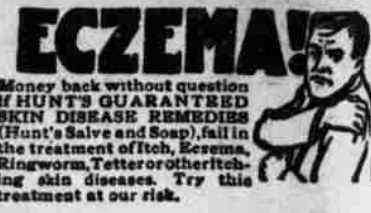

Fertilizer for Wheat.

The question of what fertilizers to use on wheat in Lawrence county is very important at the present time. With finances tight and the prices of grain low it is necessary that we get the most for our money. This can be done by studying fertilizers and our soil needs.

The value of a commercial fertilizer is determined by the amount of available plant food it contains. Such names as "Wheat and Corn Grower," "Early Harvest," "Growth," etc., mean nothing but are simply catchy expressions to aid in selling. The important thing is the amount of plant food that is shown by the chemical analysis, which the law requires to be put on every sack.

Some companies are telling big stories about the kind of filler they use. This does not interest us as we are buying soil fertility and not filler. A high grade fertilizer contains no filler. A ton of some of our low grade fertilizer contains as much as 800 pounds of sand, limestone, manure, or other kinds of filler.

A large part of Lawrence county soils need nitrogen and phosphates more than anything else. Potassium is present in sufficient quantities on most farms. On any except our poorest soils, nitrogen is too expensive to buy. When we consider that a 25 bushel crop of wheat takes from the soil about 35 pounds of nitrogen, we can readily see that we cannot buy it in such quantities but must get it by the use of legumes and manure.

While it is impossible to give any recommendations that will fit every farm, the following can generally be recommended for wheat: Acid Phosphate for the soils that contain plenty of humus and organic matter; Bone Meal more especially when the wheat is to be followed by clover and grass, and a mixture of half Bone Meal and half Acid Phosphate in either case. On the poorer soils where only quick returns are desired a 2-12-0 or a 2-12-2 fertilizer will often give excellent results.
